INDIGNATION MEETING AT HOBOKEN.—The attendance at the Hoboken indignation meeting last evening filled Odd-Fellows' Hall to overflowing. Mr. Ches. Chamberlain was chosen Chairman, and Mr. B. F. Baldwin was appointed Secretary. After a few introductory remarks, a letter was read from Mr. E. A. Sievens, in reply to one sent to that gentleman by a committee, who complained of the insufficiency of the Hoboken Ferry accommodations. Mr. B. F. Baldwin commented severely on the letter. He said Mr. S. As Bellowin was lost; some of the boats now used are about 39 years old; on the Hamilton avenue ferry, the time of waiting is from seven to ten minutes. One unemployed boat is almost always on hand, to be used in cases of emergency. The Company use their boats ten years and then sell them to certain other ferry companies.

boats ten years and then sell them to certain other ferry companies.

The speaker did not believe that Mr. Stevens had any faith in his own statement—that the Hoboken ferry-boats were safer than any other boats in our harbor. Within a formight eight persons had walked off the bridge. Would so many accidents have happened if the slip had been well lighted:

Mr. Lewis J. Bridgeman read a series of resolutions, declaring that the boats are incompetent to their task, that they jeopardize the lives of the passengers, that the other accommodations, that the trickery of the Company in the Legislature of New-Jersey deserves the condemnation of the public, that the odious act referred to should be repealed, &c., &c.

We are at last in possession of the returns of the recent Territorial Election in Idaho. The total yote polled was 7,912, of which Gov. Wallace, the Union candidate, received 4.389, and Judge Cannady. Copperhead, received 4.389, and Judge Cannady. Copperhead, received 3,523, giving the former a clear majority of 866 votes.

Idaho has thus placed herself clearly and decidedly right upon the Union question, a consummation as gratifying as it was unexpected to us.
